■ The Repertory of Mental Qualities

"How many times have you tried to repertorize low self esteem, victim or obsessive compulsive disorder, but found that the rubrics are too small, inappropriate or just not there? Our patients have major issues which just don't represent well in the current repertories... For many years I have been continually combining the same rubrics, or being frustrated over ones I could not find. I decided to solve these issues by creating a new repertory, The Repertory of Mental Qualities..." Jeremy Sherr (reg. price €99)

■ Jeremy's Dynamic Case Taker

Jeremy Sherr's Dynamic Case Taker is a complete case-taking environment for the homeopath. It offers help for the practitioner and guidance for the student, actively enhancing the case taking process to make it more efficient and accurate. The Case Taker remains flexible, adaptable and compatible with whatever methodology you're using - and may be customized to your individual requirements. Use your favorite analysis or change your analysis options as you will - the software will rework your case notes to suit. (reg. price €400)

WHO IS JEREMY SHERR?

Jeremy was born in South Africa and grew up in Israel. He began his studies at the College of Homeopathy, London, in 1980. Jeremy was the first to redevelop the science and art of provings after a century of near silence. In 1982 he conducted his first proving of Scorpion, and has since completed over 40 Hahnemannian provings, including Hydrogen, Chocolate, Diamond, Salmon and Germanium.

In 1987, Jeremy began his Dynamis School, the longest running post-graduate course in the UK.
